

Why I love Mosaic Magazine...

Name: Sheryl Watson, R.M.T.

Occupation & Training: Massage Therapist, Shamanic Studies, Instructor at MacEwan University (Massage Therapy Program) and proprietor of Sacred Diva Healing Centre.

Why This Career? It was during my first massage techniques class at MacEwan that I knew I found my calling and passion, and in 1995 I launched my career as a Massage Therapist. Over the next years I studied a variety of related modalities - breast massage, lymphatic drainage, Mayan Abdominal Massage. Then in 2009 I 'birthed' Sacred Diva Healing Centre on 124 Street - a beautiful compliment of associates who integrate science based education with heart-full healing techniques such as Bowen, Raindrop Sound Therapy and many other unique healing therapies.

Why Mosaic Magazine? Mosaic Magazine is a trusted 'go to' place for individuals seeking alternative health care options. It's a credible resource for those who understand the intrinsic value of natural healing and the inter-relationship between our physical health and our emotional, mental and spiritual well-being.

The articles we've published in Mosaic have given us the opportunity to introduce and really explain the healing benefits of the unique healing modalities we offer and we've definitely noticed an increase in clients following each article. The gift to us is not only increased business, but in attracting a quality of client who appreciates our unique training and differences.

The article and ad I had in Mosaic paid for itself within the first 3 weeks it was out. I also think the exposure in Mosaic has generated more traffic to our website, which has resulted in increased bookings for all of our practitioners! We love Mosaic AND we love Mosaic readers!
